

A Change in Rebel Plans.

The pleasant correspondent of the Boston Journal writes as follows, under date of Washington, Sept. 5.

They have throughout maintained that it was the intention of the rebels to attack Washington. They mind all the indications, all the movements and preparations have pointed to such a purpose, but now I see indications that they have changed their plans suddenly. It may be that I am mistaken, and that before twenty-four hours have passed the conflict may be raging. To-day I have had a long reconnaissance of their line, and there seems to be far less activity than was manifested on Monday and Tuesday. They are still in position at the several places occupied last week, and it may be that having secured a front they are diligently at work filling up with troops and supplies, preparatory to the great attack, but from rumors traced to various sources, it is evident that the loss of Hatteras has been a terrible blow.

No more troops will be sent North from the Gulf States, and under the panic which is sweeping along the sea coast there is a probability that States, putting in operation the State rights doctrine—that the State is more than the Confederacy, that to defend the State is the first duty—will recall the troops now in the Confederate arm. Weeks ago I indicated that such would be the result from the nature of things, if government were to threaten the coast; and I think we are to see it. There is no cohesion in the Confederacy; they hang together for the time being, but with no common bond of unity the first jar must shake them apart. We shall soon see it is not so.

Sickness, which prevails to an alarming extent in their camp, may have something to do with the change, if it be a change. The accounts which reach us reveal a sad state of affairs. How can it be otherwise! They have only flour, fresh beef and bacon; salt is scarce, clothing deficient, tents few, water poor. They have hard work and poor wages. Their hopes are evidently not so sanguine as formerly, and with a sinking of spirits come disease. It is well known in army medical science, that disease, defeat, or discouraging prospects have much to do with producing disease, while on the other hand, success is an excellent medicine to tonic which keeps men out of the hospital and in the ranks. The rebels are certainly having a hard time of it just now.

The Manassas correspondent of the Louisville Courier, under date of Aug. 27, writes, "This afternoon I counted twelve fires over 3 graves. Every day we have muffled drums and the solemn march. Disease is by long odds too common and too fatal in our camps. A painful degree of mortality prevails. On Sunday I proceeded to the Junction to procure a coffin, and found 13 orders ahead of me. In contrast there is comparatively little sickness in the Federal camp. I doubt if any army ever existed more free from disease than ours. Great vigilance is exercised by the sanitary department, and were it not for the abuse which soldiers give to their stomachs in devouring unripe fruit, and especially eating green corn, there would be but little sickness.

TO COUNTY COMMISSIONERS,

Town Agents, Druggists

AND THE

MEDICAL FACULTY OF VERMONT.

The old established House of

A. M. BININGER & CO.

ESTABLISHED IN 1778,

would call the attention of all interested in the use of

PURE LIQUORS as medicine, to their unequalled stock of PURE WINES AND LIQUORS.

We are permitted to publish the following notices and recommendations of the articles we offer, which, in all cases will be warranted open as represented: Boston, Dec. 10, 1860.

Messrs. A. M. BININGER & Co., State Assn. Ver. Gentlemen:—I purchased, as you requested, a bottle of your "OLD LONDON DRY GIN," as sold in the stores of this city, and have made chemical analysis of this sample. It contains 42 per cent. of absolute alcohol, with odor and flavor of Juniper berries only.

On evaporation of the drosses, this Gin is found to contain 142.100 of saccharine matter per gallon, and this residual matter contained nothing else. There is no adulterating ingredients or injurious matter of any kind in this Gin, and it contains the intrinsic merits of a pure article.

Respectfully, your obedient servant,

CHAS. T. JACKSON, M. D., State Assn. Ver.

Boston, July 20th, 1860.

Messrs. A. M. BININGER & Co., 19 Broad St., N. Y.

Gentlemen:—We have repeatedly heard our customers express a good opinion of your popular bottled liquors, and can say that we have rarely met with articles for which a steady demand has so rapidly sprung up, as they are now standard goods with druggists throughout the east.

Yours truly,

GEORGE W. WILDER, Druggist, No. 71 & 72 Marshall St., Boston.

In my opinion, the Liquors sold by A. M. BININGER & Co. are of a high quality, and are well adapted for medicinal purposes and reliability. I have no hesitation in recommending them in all cases where alcoholic stimulants are required.

N. H. BALLOU, M. D.

From P. D. Orville's Drug Dispensary, N. Y.

A. M. BININGER'S OLD LONDON DRY GIN.

This Gin I find to be superior to any other bottle of Gin in the market, and am rapidly introducing it in my trade.

MIDDLEBURY, Vt., March 24, 1861.

A. M. BININGER & Co., New York.

Gentlemen:—I have had occasion in my practice, to use your Wheat Tonic, and have discovered that it cures Dyspepsia, even if it had assumed a chronic form.

If the intelligence is worth anything to you, I am sure it will be worth more to the public, for no family should be without it, especially in winter weather.

NATHANIEL HARRIS, M. D.

The House of A. M. BININGER & Co., 19 Broad Street, New York, have furnished quite a large proportion of the Liquors and Wines sold by me in this County.

For the past year, and the Liquors and Wines so furnished have been pure and unadulterated and have given great satisfaction. In accordance with the laws in relation thereto, I would recommend to those to whom I wish to sell a pure article for medicinal, medicinal, or Chemical purposes.

HORATIO NEEHAM, Commissioner for Addition Co., Vt.

April 24, 1861.

From the Home Journal.

It is worthy of remark, that this venerable House have a specialty of supplying the wants of Druggists, Physicians, and Town Agents with their pure and wholesome liquors, and the fact that their list of customers embraces over four thousand Druggists, is conclusive evidence of their popularity with that respectable class of traders.

If this popular House was of recent date, and it was deemed expedient to extend its reputation by any display of public recognition, it would be in vain to seek for a more fitting and more judicious one than the testimonials which are here presented as to the excellence and variety of their merchandise.

From the point of its first existence, more than eighty years ago, down to the present day, this establishment has maintained its well-earned reputation, the integrity of its financial obligations remain yet unimpaired, and the fidelity and promptness with which its business is transacted have been served, furnish the best evidence that it has suffered no diminution, and that the quality of its staple articles have in no way been permitted to degenerate. If these considerations can be relied upon, it is undeniable facts by which the public who they have so long served, it will furnish for them sufficient encouragement to adopt as the future "coat of arms" the insignia of their native State: "Excelior!" Still higher!

For Constiveness, Irregularity and Debility of the

Digestive Organs, Inducing Headache, Lassitude, Nervousness, General Prostration of the Mind and Body, Paralysis, &c.

A moment's reflection ought to convince a sensible man of the folly and danger of constantly dosing with Cathartic Medicines. The practice is pernicious and suicidal. An experience of forty years has taught me that the constantly increasing evils of Indigestion are fearfully aggravated by the too free use of Cathartics. The American people are becoming daily more and more afflicted by their artificial modes of life. Drastic Cathartics increase the irritability, and prostrate the strength of the digestive organs.

The Pills now offered are especially designed to allay this irritability, and at the same time to invigorate and strengthen all the functions of digestion, while they are gently laxative. They are anodyne, tonic and laxative. They are so mild and invigorating that they are not recommended by any disreputable agents that have taken medicine. Business Men, Students, Professional Men, Females, and all persons leading a confined or sedentary life, should try them.

The undersigned Physicians, cheerfully certify to the high professional standing of Dr. Colby of Stanstead, one of the oldest and best Physicians, and to the excellent qualities of his Anti-Costive and Tonic Pills, which we have used in our practice, and highly approve.
